

There is already enough crap on the television which is not suitable for children. Even if you filter out certain shows by ratings, this is hardly foolproof, especially, when adult commercials and previews of movies/shows are aired during family programs now. Please, keep the filth away from our children. This responsibility not only lies with the parents, but the people producing this filth and the government as well.